Summary: After the 1st and 2nd wars, the remaining people from the Shadow Legion are here to cause havoc since Kurumi still keeps getting brainwashed by it, and she's after Mouse Boy to get her on their side, and same thing with the survivors with their new mind control masks. Will our heroes save the Earth and Spirit World before they're dead or converted? (Part 5 of Spirit Crystal Chaos)

Spirit Crystal Chaos: Shadows of the World Domination

Note: This story is a sequel to Spirit Crystal Chaos: The Second War, and it takes place after Kurumi's origin story. Unlike the first and second stories, the Saurians will make a return in there, especially Miku Izayoi later on, so to avoid confusion to the readers for the one from Date A Live and the one from Vocaloid, *I have to put in the initials of the franchise the two Mikus(Vocaloid and Date A Live) are from in citations right after the dialogue of each Miku, the people from DEM will make an appearance in there, and I might think about putting in a few Danganronpa characters in there, if it's possible for me and my friends who's RPing this with me for that. Like I said before with the prologue to the first and second stories, t*his one was also more than two franchises for a crossover, but the stories only have room for two franchises, depending on any more characters from franchises that made an appearance in them. Hope you enjoy it!

Disclaimer: I don't own the characters from Date A Live, Vocaloid, Omamori Himari, *Mighty Ducks: The Animated Series, *etc., *but Mouse Boy(my friend's OC from the pic of it on SuperOddBros's channel banner that is like the one from the pic citybear made on DeviantArt) belongs to whoever owns him and t*he other villains and characters that are not from franchises may belong to my other friend who I did this RP with

>From where this trilogy all began, Mouse Boy's biggest misadventure of his lifetime begins from the mark where Himari and Kurumi had their battle in his house. Kurumi Tokisaki, the nightmare spirit who was created by Lord Illidan as one of the most immortal weapons, is now becoming a deadliest spirit of all, and it'll be impossible to stop her, unless the Xavai Sorcery can figure out a deadly magic that can end her reigning nightmare. During the first war, Mouse Boy and his new friend he encountered, Rin Kagamine had a big battleground for survival to save all human beings. Mouse Boy is a holder of all the 7 Spirit Crystals and the Millennium Crystal and had a battle against Lord Illidan to see who will reign dominance in the universe, and Mouse Boy shocked the world as he killed him along with Himari to save her and his friends from their pain. During the summer after the first war, the second war begun when the new gang of enemies encounter the Spirit World to steal the Millennium Crystal after Mouse Boy secured it back to Comet and return it back to the Kingdom where it belongs. And now, the Millennium Crystal is missing, the second war has begun, and Kurumi is back in the dark side as ShadowWing, Illidan's deadly spirit dragon, is with her. Shido had a final encounter against ShadowWing for the sake of her little sister, Kotori Itsuka, who was killed by that dragon from a terrifying look of it, and Shido will seek vengeance on killing the dragon. The Ambassador successfully killed Illidan's mother for almost rampaging the kingdom for the sake of his son's death. Captain Comet has been revived after a surgery of getting his body split open by Kurumi's deadly gun shot as he will seek revenge on her for what she did to him. Shido got his vengeance by killing the deadly dragon and his miracle that Kotori is back alive from her death, and it's all thanks to Rin Kagamine who was still alive after she got her out of ShadowWing's body. And now, after you witnessed the backstory, a year after the first war and several months after the second war, Kurumi is now back to being controlled by the Shadow Legion and is about to make a huge outbreak to betray Mouse Boy and expose the secret behind his true identity after she witnessed the backstory of her and his origin. The new empire is about to cause a deadly outcast and new outcries across the galaxy as the third war is about to begin. Kurumi continues to grow jealous of seeing Mouse Boy continuing his date with Himari and such.

Kurumi clone: Why is it working on him lately?

Kurumi clone #2: We've been spying on him on the past days and such, how will our master respond to this?

Kurumi: No idea, but we must not give up on this. This time, he will be mine.

All of the sudden, they got an incoming transmission.

Lord Dragaunus: Kurumi, report your progress.

Kurumi: Doing well so far, Lord Dragaunus. It's just getting started.

Siege: Hahaha, with the new army we got, you better make sure you got our Dark Knight of yours with us.

Chameleon: Yes, Kurumi, don't fail us.

Siege punches Chameleon in the shoulder.

Siege: Lighten up on this and get back to work on making more weapons.

Lord Dragaunus: Anyways, Kurumi, we have set up a new alliance and the old one you remembered from our Ancient War we had. We are creating a new revolution army to dominate anyone in our path, including those dirty rotten Spirits from the Millennium Kingdom. Make sure you find a perfect specimen to become a new...Death...Knight.

Kurumi: I got this, I know the dark lord told me that we need a new army since he and I'm the only remnants in the Shadow Legion.

Lord Dragaunus: Good, because the DEM, Jeagers, Shadows, Xisians, and others are on their progress on their World Domination.

Kurumi: Wow, never expected that so soon. Btw, is that Siege in there? Can I ask him something?

Siege: Siege here at your service, nightmare mistress.

Kurumi: Well, it's been for like a while ever since you were sealed back in the green spirit crystal during the first war on Earth last year. How did you manage to get out of that spirit crystal?

Siege: Well, it's a long short story, but we have our new friend who will be guiding us to create a new empire of world domination and bring more war and richness for the Saurians.

Kurumi: Who is it?

Chameleon: Should we say it to her?

Siege: Well, I don't know if you heard about this spirit or not, but her name is Phantom.

Kurumi: Never fully heard of her, but the only thing I do remember about her is that she told me about someone named Shido Itsuka and his power to seal the spirits' powers while I was at Earth. Besides that, I don't know who she really is.

Lord Dragaunus: If you don't mind, she is in parts of unknown, and she is also responsible to create an elite force with me and the rest of the demons who are on our side. Kurumi, we informed her that you will bring us the new Death Knight that will bring a huge advantage against the enemies in our path during our war of destruction, so we are hoping you'll get the perfect subject who defeated Lord Illidan a long time ago.

Kurumi: I see, and I know who will be my first target for this.

Lord Dragaunus: That's the spirit, Kurumi, do this for us. We are waiting for your latest achievement from your progress.

Kurumi: Don't worry, I'm sure this will be achieved as soon as possible, Lord Dragaunus.

Lord Dragaunus: Excellent.

Wraith: Don't fail us, Kurumi, you have given us a chance to show us legit power in this war domination.

Kurumi: Not to worry. This time, I will succeed, even if it'll take time for this to succeed.

Chameleon: It looks like Kurumi and her mes just showed us something, Wraith.

He transformed as Kurumi.

Chameleon (Kurumi): Oh, look at me, I'm a little gothic spirit girl who loves wearing random underwear, thinks herself as an immortal spirit, and is so obsessed with Mouse Boy who killed Lord Illidan.

Kurumi: Geez, you never changed, Chameleon.

Chameleon (Kurumi): Oh there you are. Hello there, would you like to take a look of my ass, since I'm so horny?

The Fake Kurumi (Chameleon) takes off her skirt and shows her full moon at the real Kurumi.

Kurumi: Put your clothes on! There's no need for distractions!

Lord Dragaunus electrocuted the Fake Kurumi out of his way and looks at the real Kurumi.

Lord Dragaunus: Listen up, my minions! There is no time to be wasted, we must distract those damn Earthlings so we can have that mouse to be one of us, so our master can create him as a new weapon of ours against the Spirits. Failure is not an option, Kurumi!

Kurumi: Don't worry, Lord Dragaunus. Even if this will take time, I'm sure I wouldn't fail this.

Lord Dragaunus: Good. Kurumi got this under control, hopefully, the Jaegers Army, DEM, and the Shadow Empire will do the same.

Kurumi: Now if you'll excuse me, I got my first target to take care of.

Wraith: We must not fail the Dark Lord. Kurumi must not act foolish on this one.

Lord Dragaunus: Right... With our Dark Lord and a Dark Spirit in our hands, hopefully, the Shadow Realm will not fall, so we can create the world domination. Together, we are unstoppable.

Wraith: The Destruction of Alliance has reborn.

Lord Dragaunus: Hahahaha! Yes, the name itself is reborn with our new refreshments, our new name, and our new chapter against humanity!

Kurumi turns off her pad to let herself do her own job. After Kurumi's clones went into her shadow, suddenly, Kurumi's eyes went back to normal, and she felt like she got a severe headache as her outfit transformed into her dress.

Kurumi: Ow, my head! Why does this have to happen to me every time I'm near Mousey? Whatever this is, I have no choice but to stay away from him for his own safety. I can't let the dark lord make me do this to him. I got to need some help to stop this.

Kurumi decides to run away from Mouse Boy and Himari to get some help for her problem. Meanwhile, Rin Kagamine is doing some dusting to keep her house clean ever since the second war several months ago.

Rin: Ahh, what a peaceful day out there. I'm glad that my house still haven't got destroyed ever since the second war, and throughout those months, no sign of anyone from the Shadow Legion causing trouble to both this world and the Earth, and I'm also glad that Kurumi changed and moved on from this. I sure hope both of these worlds will remain in peace now that we took care of Lord Illidan, his mother, and ShadowWing.

All of the sudden, as Rin's now done with her dusting, she heard the knock on her door.

Rin: Huh? Who could this be now?

Rin opens the door as it reveals to be Kurumi.

Rin: Oh, it's you, Kurumi. Wait, are you feeling ok?

Kurumi: Rin... please help me. I'm feeling really sick. Something bad is happening... to me...

Kurumi fell down and remained unconscious as she fell on Rin's shoulder.

Rin: Kurumi!

Rin checks Kurumi's heart and realizes that she's unconscious.

Rin: Oh no, this is not good. I'm gonna have to take care of her in order to figure out what's wrong with her.

Rin takes Kurumi to her room and put her on her bed. A couple of minutes later, Kurumi woke up.

Kurumi: Argh, my head. Wait, where am I?

Rin: You're in my room. I have to bring you here cause there's something wrong with you.

Kurumi: There is?

Rin: Yes, you said that you're feeling really sick, and as I felt your head, you felt like you got a really bad headache. Do you have an idea on what's causing this to you?

Kurumi: I don't know if I should tell you, but if I did, I'm worried that there's going to be upcoming danger nearby.

Rin: Upcoming danger? What do you mean by that?

Kurumi: I'm guessing the Shadow Legion ever since I finally remember everything I did from the past time with it before I met Mouse Boy and the others. I know everyone from it is already defeated, but only one is still remaining, and he's trying to get me back to it, just like with what Lord Illidan and his mother did to me.

Suddenly, Kurumi felt that the dark sensation from the Dark Lord is returning to her as she's starting to struggle.

Kurumi: Ugh, there it is again.

Rin: Kurumi, is there any way to help you from this?

Kurumi: ...Need some water please...

Rin: Ok, just stay here and I'll be right back. Don't go anywhere.

Rin heads off from her room to get Kurumi a glass of water.

Kurumi: My head's killing me. Why can't the Shadow Legion just give up on me already? I told them I'm not going back, and I'll never will.

All of the sudden, Kurumi somehow gave in to the Dark Lord's power as her clock eye is now red and her eyes now have a red glow surrounding them, including her clock eye as she got out of Rin's bed and transformed to her spirit form.

Rin: I'm back now, Kurumi. I hope this will make you feel better.

As Rin got back, she saw Kurumi and dropped the glass of water to the floor, breaking it as she feels shocked of what happened to Kurumi.

Rin: Oh, what the? You got to be kidding me.

Kurumi: You think your distraction can stop me? I have a new plan coming up for the Dark Lord, and I do not want any interruptions before that time. We'll shall meet again, Rin.

Kurumi teleports from her shadow to escape.

Rin: Oh no, not this bullshit again. How is that even possible? The Shadow Legion is already taken care of, so she should be fine, but about her saying that the Dark Lord is causing her to be like this, something tells me that he's still alive and could be the mastermind behind all of this. I got to warn Comet and the others about this.

Suddenly, Rin's phone rang as she figured out that Len's calling her.

Rin: Oh, it's Len. What does he want during that time?

Rin answered her phone.

Rin: Hello?

Len: Hey, Rin Kagamine, what's shaking, babe?

Rin: Oh, nothing much, just taking care of my house like always ever since the Shadow Legion is taken care of months ago.

Len: So Rin, we haven't got within each other since we covered the war together, so can we finally have a date tonight?

Rin: Well, since you asked me that, I was thinking tomorrow will work for that since I got some things I need to take care of for this day.

Len: Awesome! We will go out and do something romantic since we finally got our freedom after we took care of them in the war.

Rin: Yea, I'll see you tomorrow afternoon for our date.

Len: Alright, it's official. You'll take care, Rin, I'll pick you up tomorrow for our important date.

Rin: Alright, but how are you going to pick me up? I live in the Spirit World, and you live in Earth. How are you going to get to my home from there?

Len: Gah...

Len is worried about that since she told him that she lives in the Spirit World.

Len: Oh man, how am I suppose to pick her up like this!? I will figure out the way to pick you up, Rin. How about you can teleport yourself to Earth at the Italian District Area?

Rin: Good idea, Len. Good thing I can transform into a priestess for that since as a priestess, I can summon portals to go to Earth and the Spirit World.

Len: Awesome, that sounds great! Thank you for your help to cover things out for our date. We really need something to do together after our hard times we had in the war.

Rin: No problem. I'll see ya later, Len.

Len: Alright, goodbyyyeee!

Rin hangs up on her phone as she's still continuing to keep her house clean.

Rin: I can't believe I have to do this, but there's no other choice. I just really want some peace for once, but because of what happened to Kurumi recently, if I tell Comet, the Ambassador, or anyone else about this, I fear that this may cause another war, which is something I really don't want ever since the first war last year and the second war several months ago. Whatever's going on right now, I hope Kurumi will be ok, and same thing with Mouse Boy and Himari since they're already married.

Meanwhile, with Mouse Boy and Himari as they return home from their date since they are married.

Mouse Boy: Himari, you've been acting weird lately ever since we got back home. What happened?

Himari: Something is not right here. This doesn't feel like we are safe anymore. I guess some snitch is causing a dramatic change that is affecting our lives right now.

Mouse Boy: Okay, now you are scaring me, honey. Listen, we already took care of Lord Illidan and that damn dragon of his. I don't think there are any demons left...

Himari: Mousey...

Mouse Boy: How about we go inside so we can be safe?

Mouse Boy pushes Himari back inside the house.

Mouse Boy: Okay, Himari, what in the world are you-?

Himari's hand covers his mouth to tell him an important message.

Himari: You do realize of what the woman needs from a man so badly, and he does to what the girls need so badly. That's what's not right here. This love needs to go onto the whole new level between a cat and mouse.

Mouse Boy: Whaaat!? The cat and mouse are going at it again!? I think the world is changing! Rivers and Seas boiling, 40 years of darkness, Earthquakes, Volcanos, the rising from the dead, Human Sacrifice, and a Cat and Mouse living together! Mass Hysteria!

Himari pins Mouse Boy in the ground in the living room.

Himari: ENOUGH! If the world is going to end like this...

Himari takes off her clothes and goes naked.

Himari: ...We must do something that we shouldn't do a long time ago... Please... Do me...

Mouse Boy suddenly closed his eyes and starts making out with Himari as they're enjoying their important love after Himari's cat instinct about the weird and unforeseeable future that is going to hit them soon. As Mouse Boy and Himari continue to kiss wildly, he takes her to their bed and is actually doing it with her for the first time ever. A Cat and a Mouse having sex in the bed. Both of them are naked, and Mouse Boy starts riding on Himari Noihara to make sure they have their love stick with each other forever...But all of the sudden, as Kurumi arrived to Mouse Boy and Himari's house from her shadow, she suddenly saw Mouse Boy and Himari having sex with each other through the window as she's starting to grow jealous.

Kurumi: Wha... This can't be! Why are they doing this together? This is not fair, I should be the one to do it with Mousey. No wonder she has those big tittes for him, but he doesn't need those for love. He deserves a better love of his life, and that should have been me. With my and the Dark Lord's plan, I'm sure he'll make me his better love than Himari, but if they see me before this will succeed, I'm screwed, so I have to wait until Mousey's alone before I can convert him to my side.

Kurumi is devastated from her heart that Mouse Boy is actually going along with Himari's relationship very well with their first sex ever in their life, but that makes Kurumi's heart go on fire...EVEN WORST than you can possibly imagine with demon anger inside of her.

Kurumi: Oh, boohoo, my heart feels like it's starting to break from that jealousy of Mousey and Himari being together, but I must have him while avoiding any suspicions from the others, including Himari before this plan can succeed.

On Kurumi's background, the storm is brewing around her with anger and shame as it's starting to feel like she wants to destroy Mouse Boy's relationship with Himari so she can have him! Kurumi's clock on her eye is starting to grow flames as her clock is ticking faster with a horrifying look of her Zafkiel.

Kurumi: I must... I must have him! He will be mine, and there's nobody who can stop me! Zafkiel, Zayin!

The clock hands in Kurumi's right eye moved clockwise at fast speed to 7 o'clock as the shadow was absorbed into the muzzle of Kurumi's handgun, and as she recognized that the window to Mouse Boy and Himari's bedroom is open, she shoots Himari with it while trying to avoid being caught by her or Mouse Boy, and then, she took Mouse Boy to someplace far away from Himari with her shadow.

Mouse Boy: What the!? What is going on, where am I? Is this a dream!?

While Mouse Boy didn't notice, he's in the forest, where Kurumi took him to where he'll be far away from Himari.

Mouse Boy: What is this place? What happened, and where are my clothes?

Mouse Boy covers his cute naked body as he's in the spooky, foggy forest.

Mouse Boy: Hello! Himari!? Is someone there!?

Mouse Boy begins to shout to see if anyone can get his message as he's scared and frightened like a poor mouse. All of the sudden, Kurumi sneaked up behind Mouse Boy with a smirk on her face and bit him on his right cheek. Mouse Boy suddenly screams in fear as Kurumi attacked him as she bit him on his right cheek. He then placed his hand on it and felt blood running off from it.

Mouse Boy: What the heck!?

But before Mouse Boy can see Kurumi, she hid behind the tree to tell him something.

Kurumi: Well, Mousey, I'll let you spend your last day of freedom for now, but when tomorrow night comes, your freedom shall remain gone, and you'll belong to me.

Kurumi teleports with her shadow from the tree she's hiding behind.

Mouse Boy: I know that voice! Kurumi, what are you doing, and why did you bite me for!? Is this some kind of trap that you are finally going to kill me for!? YOU MONSTER!

Mouse Boy suddenly realizes that she's finally going to kill him since Illidan's death. Meanwhile, with Kurumi, she headed back to Mouse Boy and Himari's bedroom with Himari still remained frozen from Kurumi's Zayin.

Kurumi: Zafkiel, Hei.

The clock hands in Kurumi's right eye moved clockwise at fast speed to 5 o'clock as the shadow was absorbed into the muzzle of Kurumi's handgun, and she shoots Himari with it as she gave her commands.

Kurumi: Now, Himari, once I freed you from my Zayin, you wouldn't remember anything that happened and know what's going to happen to your Mousey. And now...

Kurumi snaps her fingers to stop her Zayin as Himari fell down to her and Mouse Boy's bed and felt like she was sleeping. As Kurumi left with her shadow, her shadows brought Mouse Boy back to his and Himari's room. Then, without notes of what happened, Mouse Boy and Himari are back together as they are sleeping together naked, but all because of what happened from Kurumi, there is the new danger that is coming back to them. Kurumi's Shadows return back into her mind as she resumes her duty since her father's creation, and the new destiny is to bring back the Shadow Legion. Kurumi's goal before her deadline from the Saurians is to steal the soul from the suspect who killed Lord Illidan and create him as one of their own Death Knights, the new deadly weapon of the new rebirth of the Shadow Legion. As the Earth is on his peace without dealing with the others' conflict, what they didn't know is that the third war has just begun. The Saurians began their war game against the Spirits' Secondary Systems, while the D.E.M., the Jeager Army, and the Shadow Legion began their big impact through the Spirit Kingdoms and the Xavai Secondary Territory.

Queen Silveria: The war... It's back, and the Shadows are back...

Ambassador: We must alert our spirits and reform the Star Force at once.

Queen Silveria: No, something is not right about this, but I can't quite catch the mysterious figure that is bothering me in my mind right now...

One Day.

Mouse Boy: Himari...?

As Mouse Boy wakes up, he sees Himari naked with him.

Mouse Boy: That last night was crazy...And what a dream I had...

Mouse Boy plays with Himari's butt as they start their routine, but what they didn't know is fom the outer world, the war just broke out, and they are ready for a bigger problem with Kurumi's deadly trap. Meanwhile, with the Saurians' deadly fleet with the spirits.

Wraith: Lord Dragaunus, we are almost even against the spirits.

Lord Dragaunus: I hope Kurumi's plan is not stalling us. Siege and Chameleon are already making progress here with the new friend we had, so I hope Kurumi is not late for this.

Wraith: Yes, I hope she won't be late for this. I know what she's doing, and she will return back with the important suspect who will be our big thing for the Shadows' Rebirth.

Lord Dragaunus: With a new war crime already happening, we will have our powerful empire as long as the Dark Lord of the Shadow World will share his great power with us, and the Saurians will be the most deadly species of the universe!

Incoming Transmission

Wraith: This must be Kurumi, Lord Dragaunus.

Lord Dragaunus accepts the Incoming Transmission.

Kurumi: Lord Dragaunus, I manage to get the suspect where I wanted him.

Lord Dragaunus: You did? Finally, I'm happy that you manage to get our mission done as quick as a double. Great work, Kurumi. Your Dark Lord and master will be pleased by your success. It is time to make our final step, and I hope that shadow inside his vessel will control 100% of his body in a sap.

Kurumi: Not to worry, but however, since the suspect had a love of his life, I'll let him have his last moment of freedom for now. That will happen right around tonight.

Lord Dragaunus: Tonight, eh? Well, I hope that tonight will be your deadline where we need that chosen one who killed Lord Illidan that will be ours. We need him to help out our Saurians so we can have our way to control the domination throughout the galaxy. Read my words, Kurumi. Tonight is the night is where you get that Mouse and bring him to us in a sap.

He smashes his fist on the remote with serious behavior.

Lord Dragaunus: Got that!?

Kurumi: Don't worry, I'm sure this will succeed. To kill some time for me while I wait for tonight, I'll just handle my thing with the Dark Lord while you and the others will have company to not let the others interfere my plan.

Lord Dragaunus: You better not kill our wait, time is now, time is everything for our impact as a Destruction of Alliance will let the Shadow Legion be reborn and bring the new era of World Domination. Thank you for your time, Kurumi Tokisaki, just remember our deadline.

I will inform the others of your progress.

Kurumi: Ok. I have something else in mind for this new impact, but I'll tell you about it later once we have our suspect in our side.

Lord Dragaunus: Alright, ending transmission.

End Transmission as they both sign off.

Lord Dragaunus: Wraith, contact Issac for me at once.

Wraith: Should I contact the rest of our alliance?

Lord Dragaunus: No... We got this under...Control...

Meanwhile, back in Earth, Len Kagamine begins his first date with Rin in the aftermath of the second war that they took care of.

Len: Oh wow, Rin. I cannot think of the thousand words of how beautiful you look.

Rin: Oh my, thank you, Len. I really appreciate on what you said about me.

Len: Hehe, that's my style of being a gentlemen, Rin.

Rin: I see.

Len: So, are we-?

All of the sudden, the wind suddenly blows strong out of nowhere as the sky looks like it's about to explode. But then, it was a giant ship flying by, and it was the the Xavai Proton Battleship.

Len: What the-!?

Rin sighs.

Rin: What now?

Meanwhile, with Himari, her cat senses are tingling strong.

Himari: Mousey, I sensed trouble. You stay in the house safely, I'll go check it out.

Mouse Boy: Himari!? Wait, why are you doing this!?

Mouse Boy grabs her in the shoulder to stop.

Mouse Boy: Himari, you didn't answer my question.

Himari: Master, let me go at this instant.

Mouse Boy: No! I'm not letting you go until you explain to me about what's going on! So in that way, I won't be confused by this conflict.

Himari: It's scary for me to say this, but I want to do this to protect our lives, and I don't want to lose you.

Mouse Boy: But why is this ship here?

Himari: It's just an important meeting, please, I won't be gone for long, but please stay home and make sure you're safe. I know you can handle this yourself like last time, right?

Mouse Boy: Honey, if there is a problem, please say it.

Suddenly, in the moment of silence, Mouse Boy slowly kissed Himari in the lip in a full deep kiss. With a dramatic moment, Mouse Boy and Himari's tears are coming out of their eyes, as they are worried that they might lose each other one day when another danger comes. He really wants this nightmare to end so they can end up living together forever. But then, Himari lets himself go with sad tears of goodbye as Mouse Boy is shocked and depressed as her hand lets him go as she flies away with her powerful samurai skills.

Himari: I'm sorry, Master.

Those are her final words as she flew away through the sky with a sad scene of Mouse Boy's hand in the air with tears running down from her eyes and watching Himari fly away without any idea on what is going on.

Mouse Boy: Hiii..maarr..iiii. sniff sniff

As he didn't notice, Kurumi appeared behind him from her shadow, but this time, she's in her normal state as she saw him crying.

Kurumi: Hey, Mousey, what happened here? Is there something wrong?

Without a response, Mouse Boy's knees landed in the ground with tears and shame as the shadow is showing half of his face to cover his depressing face as his tears continues to run down from his eyes, but Kurumi touched his left shoulder to help him calm down.

Kurumi: Mousey, tell me what's wrong. I hate to see you being so sad like this.

Until she heard one word that he spilled out.

Mouse Boy: Hiii..m-marr-iiii.

Mouse Boy's hands covered his eyes as he's about to have a breakdown. Kurumi can't believe what she's seeing right now.

Kurumi: Did you said Himari? What happened to her?

Mouse Boy: sniff sniff Yes...Himari... I'm afraid of losing her!

Mouse Boy suddenly begins to have a breakdown.

Kurumi: Losing her? What do you mean? Did something happened that made you like this?

Mouse Boy: I don't want her to be killed! Himari was my life ever since I met her, she was meant to be there for me, she protected me from danger, and she helped me guide a better life for me! If she dies, I don't know what's going to affect my future without her!

Kurumi: Oh, poor Mousey. I know how you feel about that. Perhaps maybe this will cheer you up a bit.

Kurumi kisses Mouse Boy in the cheek to help calm him down.

Mouse Boy: Kurumi?

Mouse Boy is confused since she kissed him in the cheek.

Kurumi: I'm just trying to help you since you're feeling sad right now.

Mouse Boy suddenly hugs Kurumi and tries to calm down his breakdown crying onto Kurumi's shoulders.

Kurumi: Mousey, it's ok. You still have your friends who care for you, like me and Rin.

Mouse Boy cries hard and tries to calm down his nerve as Kurumi feels his tears from his shoulder. Suddenly, Kurumi pets Mouse Boy in his head to help calm him down. His ears twitch like a cute pet mouse, and he wiggles his mouse tail.

Kurumi: Hehe, I hope this will make you feel better, Mousey.

Mouse Boy sniffs and sniffs as his nose starts to run as his tears are coming down from his eyes.

Kurumi: You ok now, Mousey?

Mouse Boy looks down as the shadow is covering his face from his sadness.

Mouse Boy: ...Yes, I'm alright for now...

Kurumi: Oh, thank goodness. I was worried about you.

Kurumi hugs Mouse Boy as he speaks inside his head.

Mouse Boy: I can't believe Kurumi is hugging me, and I can feel her heart beeping strong...What is going on?

Kurumi: So, Mousey, tell me what happened that made you cry like this.

Mouse Boy: Himari left me without telling me on what is happening. I just had that bad dream the other night, and I don't know what happened last night. I thought today is where we can live in our normal lives in Earth and maybe have a better pattern together, and Himari left me without any signs of danger coming. Well, she sensed danger coming, but I'm scared...It's because I love her, and I don't want to lose her in my life. I don't want her to end up like what happened to her parents back in the Ancient War. I just can't bare of what'll happen next, Kurumi.

Kurumi: I see. I know how you feel about losing the one you loved.

She really does care for you, and she'll do anything to protect you from danger at all costs.

Meanwhile, with Wraith.

Wraith: Hehehe, Kurumi is in the right time.

Meanwhile, with Rin and Len.

Rin: Geez, what is up with those Xavai people and that ship of theirs?

The spaceship that has disturbed their moment opened up to reveal Comet and the Ambassador.

Comet: Rin, Len, we are sorry for this inconvenience, but something struck us, and we are being attacked very hard. We need to report back to the Spirit World at once.

Rin: What do you mean? Can't you see we're about to go on a date here?

Ambassador: Sorry, Rin, but that date has to go, the Shadows have returned, and everyone in our Galactic Federation is getting torn apart by this quick attack that is hitting the universe hard. We cannot stall like this, we need to take actions now!

Rin: Oh, come on! You interrupted us just for this? Sorry to say this, but I'll think you guys will take care of it on your own for now. I'll join in later after my date with Len.

All of the sudden, Comet uses his bubble magic attack to silence Rin's attitude.

Comet: Rin, you are part of the Spirit Family, and we must stick together as family and help the others from the Shadows' returning, so I cannot let you dispute our order like this.

Rin: But, but, wait, I can make this up. I'll have one of my clones to take my spot for this, while I'll stay on the date with Len. So in that way, it makes it more easier for me to be in two places at once.

Ambassador: Rin, your behavior is putting us on the bad standards against you. Do you want this Earth to die? You must fight against the Shadows.

Comet: He's right, Rin, if you want to make this easier to save your planet, then you shouldn't say so with a better mind to it.

Rin: Guys, what I'm trying to say is that I'll let my clones fight for you, at least many of them can be summoned as they can, so you don't have to worry about that.

Comet: Alright, send us the clone of yours so we can get into-

?: Comet!

Ambassador: It's Himari, master Comet.

Himari jumped out of the wall and arrived at the scene.

Himari: I know where this is going, my lord, but it ain't going to be pretty.

Comet: I bet your demon cat senses sensed a terrible danger coming in from our home. The Shadows have returned.

Himari: How bad can this be? We killed Lord Illidan. How can the shadows return?

Rin: Yea, I don't get this. How is that even possible? We took care of everyone in the Shadow Legion, and Kurumi changed sides and is with us now.

Himari: Kurumi... That monster can never be trusted... It can be her! She must be behind this! But where can she possibly be!?

Rin: I don't know if this is really her, but if it is, then there must be the mastermind who's now controlling her, so we can't focus on her now. I'm really scared of having another war happen so soon.

Comet: Wherever she is, Kurumi can be anywhere she can possibly be, but remember, she is a part of the Shadow Family.

Ambassador: The third war is already happening, Kagamine.

Rin: God dammit! After one year of the first war on Earth? I thought this will end already.

Himari: Damn those Shadows.

Rin starts to cry of what Comet and the Ambassador said about the third war happening.

Ambassador: Kotori and the others have already taken actions from this, we need you at once.

Rin wipes her tears off as she sends out one of her clones to take her spot for the war.

Rin: Alright, fine, but you're still gonna let me be on the date with Len while my clone can take my spot for the war. I'll join in later after the date, which is tomorrow.

Ambassador: I'm sorry you have to cry through this, but the lives of the others matter. You will not realize how suffering the others are when it comes to finding new homes and living in their lives, but things need to work out someway, and hard work can pay off. We have to do this to save our people and be rewarded big for our kind. Now do you get it, Rin?

Rin: I think so.

Ambassador: Come on.

Len: I hope I know what you're doing, Rin, because I think I'm feeling uncomfortable from this about the third war.

Rin: Me too, especially with what happened to Kurumi, but it's not important for us now.

The Rin clone heads off to the ship.

Himari: I don't like where this is going from Kurumi...Even if the Shadows Return...Kurumi can be ego to resort herself back to the dark side.

Rin: But there's no way she could do this on her own. Someone must be controlling her.

Comet: And that is why we need to stop them again.

Ambassador: Even though the Shadows runs these demon spirits, it can make the war even difficult to stop them if Kurumi is back to the dark side. As we all know, Kurumi is unstoppable.

Comet: None of the less, I can prison her for eternity with my black hole spirit crystal.

Ambassador: Ahhh, good point.

Rin: Well, good luck on that.

Ambassador: You too, Rin, your clones better not fail us.

Comet: Or else, we might be good as dead like the others...

Rin: I hope so.

Comet: And we cannot let that happen to us, especially my daughter who is a half alien and half human sorcery that survived from that terror attack as well as the Ancient War.

Rin: I see. Well, I wish you guys the best out there.

Himari: ... Don't tell me...

Ambassador: Is there something wrong, Himari?

Himari: Don't tell me if Kurumi is near my master...

Comet: That can't be right.

Ambassador: There is no possible chance she can be near that Mouse Boy.

Meanwhile, with Wraith.

Wraith: Well, I think it's time to make it happen... Mr. Westcott?

Westcott: Hmhmhmhmhm, he's perfect. He will lead us to total annihilation.

Wraith: And our Dark Phantom will be pleased, shall we begin?

Westcott: Yes, Wraith, it is time that the new dark age...

He presses the button.

Westcott: ...Begins.

Meanwhile, when Westcott pressed the button, with Kurumi and Mouse Boy after he stops crying, this happens. The mysterious electricity sparks on Mouse Boy's right eye where she bit his right cheek.

Mouse Boy: Ow, my eye!

Mouse Boy covers his right eye.

Kurumi: Are you ok?

Mouse Boy: OWWW! DAMN IT!

Mouse Boy lands on his bed as he's still covering his right eye.

Kurumi: What happened to your right eye?

The electrocution is still affecting his right eye as he rolls on the bed in pain with his hand still covering his eye. Westcott then lets go of the button and Wraith smiles after the process is complete. Mouse Boy gets up as his skin is showing a tattoo, but it's actually the shadow vessel on his skin.

Mouse Boy: Ugh...What the!? 0_o

Kurumi: Wha... what is that?

Mouse Boy: What is going on!?

Kurumi: No idea, but what happened to your eye? Is it ok?

Mouse Boy is in panic mode and goes to the mirror to see for himself as the black tattoo vessel as the shadow demon is controlling the Mouse's soul. And when he uncovers his right eye, it turns out to be a bloody red eye, not like his other eye, which is plain red, but wait, it's not a red eye, it has a red clock on his bloody red eye that is almost symbolized as a clock like Kurumi's clock on her right eye, which it was after she ate his right cheek. Now Mouse Boy has a Zafkiel like Kurumi.

Kurumi: Mousey... your painful eye kinda looks like my right one.

Mouse Boy: Do I feel like I have a clock in my eye?

He looks in the mirror.

Mouse Boy: What the heck!?

Kurumi: I think so. I don't know what happened that made you got it.

Mouse Boy: Now I'm a freak! A Mouse Boy with a clock in his eye!? Oh god, why!?

Mouse Boy lands on his bed again as he's confused by his look.

Mouse Boy: How am I supposed to go to work or play lacrosse with this weird clock thingy in my right eye?

Kurumi: How about trying to cover it just like what I do or using one of the contact lenses for it if you have any?

Mouse Boy: Oh right, I might look even worse with that hair, and I'm married with Himari. I don't want to look like a silly pirate, you know. Wait a second, this is some kind of trap, is it? Don't even think about stealing me from Himari!

Kurumi: Don't worry, I'm not going to. I know that you're married already.

Mouse Boy sighs as he looks back in the mirror and looks at his red clock on his eye.

Kurumi: I hope you'll be ok like this for a while.

Mouse Boy sighs.

Mouse Boy: I hope.

Kurumi: Good luck on that.

Mouse Boy: Thank you, Kurumi.

Kurumi: No problem, Mousey.

Mouse Boy left to figure out some way to hide his scary look on his eye since after what Kurumi did to him back then. As Mouse Boy left, Kurumi hides herself and reverts back to her evil persona as she smirked, her eyes start to have a red glow surrounding them as she blinked, and her clock eye turned red.

Kurumi: Starting tonight, Mousey, you cannot be able to resist the darkness inside you that will take over your mind, heart, brain, and soul from my bite, and soon, you'll be mine to help me get recruits to the new army of the Shadow Legion for our dark lord since all of them are gone except me.

Kurumi looks at the picture of a drawing of a black mask with a red diamond gem on it that looks like the normal persona mask from NiGHTS Journey of Dreams.

Kurumi: And with that out of the way, I got to get the dark lord to help me on making a couple of those by tonight for me to test them out before I can use the last one to let the others make the cloning machine of to spread as many of these to the entire population on Earth, and soon, the Spirit World if there are any survivors there, and no one will stand a chance against us.

Kurumi uses her shadow to teleport away from Mouse Boy's house. Meanwhile, with Rin Kagamine and Len Kagamine.

Comet: Himari, I think it's the best to leave now. If Mouse Boy is not included, then we should not need him.

Himari: Are you mad? My master needs me...Just in case, but I might not see him again, because there is danger out there that might kill us all.

Ambassador: As long as Rin and Len are in Earth, he will be fine without getting harmed.

Rin: Yea, and besides, he has work and lacrosse to take care of, so he should be fine.

Himari: Alright, I'm ready for war.

Ambassador: Let's move, time is wasting.

Len: So long, Rin's clones.

Rin (clone): Take care on your date, you two.

Himari: Oh, and Rin...

Rin: Yes, Himari?

Himari: Please take good care and keep a good eye on my master, will you? And you too, Len.

Len gives his signal that he gets it.

Len: Right-o!

Rin: Ok, if anything goes wrong with him, I'll sense it since I have spiritual power, whether if I have to do it by myself or with Len.

Himari: Thank you.

Himari is pleased and felt confidence as she enters the spaceship as she's feeling better right now.

Rin: No problem. Good luck out there, Himari.

And with that, Comet, the Ambassador, the Rin clones, and Himari have taken off to war.

Rin: So, Len, where do you think we should go to for our date?

Len: Well, originally, I want to take you out to the Italian district where they have the lovely river with boats, it's where it'll takes us to that romantic Italian Restaurant.

Rin: Wow, that looks like fun.

Meanwhile, Mouse Boy looks at himself with an evil look on his face with his red clock on his eye.

Wraith: Hmhmhmhm, that demon mind control on Mouse Boy has made him now on our side. It is now complete to attempt our first...Assassination.

Meanwhile, with Rin and Len.

Len: Ready to set sail?

He showed his hand to Rin.

Rin: I sure am, Len.

Rin holds Len's hand together.

As Rin and Len sit together on the love boat, they begin to sail through the Italian District River Area, until...

Wraith: Perfect...This will be a history making to see them getting killed...Make your move, Mouse Boy.

Mouse Boy suddenly gets controlled and is ready to attempt his move as they enter through the tunnel.

Wraith: This is it, now, Mouse Boy!

Mouse Boy goes berserk as his clock is sensing strong power from his Zafkiel, and he's pointing at them with his hand with an attempt to use his Dark magic on them. As they enter the tunnel, without warning, the mysterious vorpal portal came out of nowhere to suck in Rin and Len Kagamine into their dangerous purgatory!

Len: What the!?

Rin: Is this supposed to be a secret shortcut to the restaurant?

Len: It doesn't look like it, it looks like we are about to enter a dead meat restaurant!

As she can see, the inside of the portal has dangerous hungry demon dogs and vicious man-eating aliens with green drool, who are ready to eat them to the other dimension.

Rin: Ok, someone must be playing a trick on us, and I don't want that interfering our date.

Rin transforms into a priestess to save herself and Len. All of the sudden, they are being pushed and flying around in the sky, as if they're being controlled like a voodoo doll!

Rin: What the?! Is this some kind of joke?! If it is, it's not funny!

Wraith: Hehehe, not anymore.

Mouse Boy: Welcome to your purgatory.

He said that with a demon voice.

Rin: Huh? Who is this? Show yourself, you freak!

Then all of the sudden, the shadow figure who almost looked like LORD ILLIDAN appears.

?: Now, my demons, flesh out this delicious meat of yours!

He's pointing at Rin and Len as the vicious alien-eating Zergs launch the attack on Rin Kagamine! Unfortunately, Rin used her strong spiritual power to break free from being controlled like a voodoo doll as she summoned her staff and used her magic to attack the zergs.

Rin: Sorry to say this, but you do realize that Len and I are humanoid robots, so with that endoskeleton of ours in our bodies, you can't be able to devour me or him.

?: I won't take any chances from your knowledge of your mind that the spirits will be fallen again! Your act of disincentive has brought us to something new against the world. Your self-centered mood made you look like a weakling spirit with your new outsiders, time for you to make history... Die!

He throws his hand in the air, and the flying suicide swarms are ready to kill them.

Rin: Weakling?! Who you're calling a weakling?! Whoever you are, you shouldn't be there to interrupt our business, and that business has nothing to do with you or the Shadow Legion!

Rin uses her magic at the swarms.

Len: RIN, WE NEED TO GET OUT OF HERE! HE'S SUMMONING MORE ZERGS TO EAT US!

Rin: Idk how are we supposed to get out of here. We're stuck in this purgatory.

Len: Look! A portal, it's closing!

Len suddenly spotted a portal, but all of the sudden, it's closing, so Rin has to act fast.

Rin: Oh, didn't see it there. I'll carry you there with one of my spells to get you free.

Rin uses her psychic spell to break Len free from being controlled like a voodoo doll as she's now carrying him to be safe.

Rin: Finishio!

Rin uses her spell to turn herself and Len invisible since she's carrying him with her psychic spell to avoid being chased as they're heading quickly towards the portal.

Rin: Next time we meet again, I want to see who you really are!

Wraith: Hehehe, one day, you will, Rin Kagamine.

Mouse Boy: Himari...

Wraith: Hmmm... Is there something wrong with his mind?

Meanwhile, with Rin and Len.

Len: Phew...WHAT THE HECK WAS THAT!?

Rin made herself and Len visible as she putted Len into the ground.

Rin: Power down.

Rin transforms herself back into a normal Vocaloid.

Rin: I have no idea, but I don't want to remember that during that time, and I don't know who is that guy who attacked us out of nowhere. Whatever this is, I just hope there wouldn't be any more interruptions like this again during our date.

Len: Whoever they are, the Shadows are being reborn. Now it scares me twice when I go to bed after I finish eating dinner with you!

Rin: Don't worry, at least I'll help on taking care of them tomorrow after our date.

Len: Okay.

Len lifts his hand up.

Len: Ready?

Rin: I am, Len.

Rin holds hands with Len. As Len walked away with Rin to resume their dating since she has nothing to do with the Shadows returning...

Wraith: Hmhmhmhm, I guess they are self-confident over their home planet, I guess that really means something. Kurumi...

He snaps his finger until...

Mouse Boy: Huh? Where am I? Where are the spirit crystals? Something is not right here, and I need to know. Himari left, and I want to know what danger there is so we can keep my home safe. Gawww, I need to get the heck out of here!

Westcott: Hmmm...Time is now... Do it again, Wraith.

All of the sudden, Wraith is now using his powerful dark energy on Mouse Boy.

Wraith: You will be ours as you command, feel the darkness inside you, you are now overwhelmed with darkness and strength, come and feel the goodness inside of you and end the spirits.

All of the sudden, the shadow vessel where Kurumi bit him is now triggering from his body, but he's trying to fight it.

Wraith: Why is it not fulfilling his body yet? Is the demon blood already onto him?

Chameleon: I'll take care of it, you are not doing it right! You'll be mine as our new world order, in the name of Lord Illidan!

Chamelon uses Wraith's staff and uses it to lose Mouse Boy's mind as his demon blood is now acting up.

Mouse Boy: AAAAHHHH! GRRRRRR!

Chameleon: It's working! It's finally happening! The shadow blood inside of him is awakening!

Kurumi: Guys, what did I just say?! Now's not the time for the completion yet!

Chameleon: Kurumi!?

Kurumi: How many times do I have to say it? I know you guys want to have some fun with him for a while, but our control over Mousey is not complete yet, and I have not yet prepare the completion until tonight.

Chameleon: ARE YOU FREAKING SERIOUS, KURUMI!?

All of the sudden, the staff magic lets go of Mouse Boy, but it hits the rope and burns it off, and it releases a giant steel as it crashes onto Kurumi.

Chameleon: Ummm...

He's busted as he decided to throw it to Wraith.

Chameleon: It's your fault, not me, I'm out of here.

Chameleon decides to escape from his trouble after a giant steel hit Kurumi in the ground.

Kurumi: Oww! Chameleon, where do you think you're doing?

Suddenly, one of Kurumi's shadows grabbed Chameleon by his tail.

Kurumi: Where do you think you're going now?

Chameleon was shocked and gasped.

Chameleon: It wasn't my fault! Why are you doing this to me!?

Kurumi: Why did you try to interrupt my business with Wraith?

Chameleon: Damn it, you freak! You were supposed to control Mousey already! Were you busy smooching with him some more!?

Kurumi: I'm not ready for the completion of our control over Mousey yet. We'll save that for tonight when I get done with my stuff I need to work on with the Dark Lord.

Wraith: Time is fading Kurumi, we need him in our lead to our Shadow Region. You must not seize this operation.

Kurumi: I know, but my business with the Dark Lord is almost done, and it's right almost the night for my preparation for this. When that time comes, I'll tell you when I'm ready so we can be able to make our control over Mousey complete.

Wraith: That stalling isn't necessary. Even if the Dark Lord is almost done with his commence, I expect this to happen immediately for Lord Dragaunus and the rest of our Region.

Kurumi: Don't worry, it's still going to happen whenever I'm ready.

Wraith: You better not fail.

Chameleon: Yeah...Failing is not an option.

Kurumi: I got this, guys. I know what to do. I'll tell you when I'm ready so we can make this happen.

Wraith: Good.

Chameleon: Good, and you can let go of my tail now!

Kurumi's shadow lets go of Chameleon's tail as he runs off.

Kurumi: Btw, Wraith, can I talk to you about something?

Wraith: What is it?

Kurumi: About someone you just attacked recently, the priestess named Rin Kagamine, I know I can't have her running around and ruining our plans and you're distracting her to keep her from trying to stop us, but I can't have her be killed and draw suspicions to what's going on. However, since Rin's close to Mousey as friends, we'll handle her later, but since her spiritual power is like pretty high and she's already become strong since then, I'll have a plan for her later after we completely converted Mousey.

Wraith: Let's not forget Comet, his energy is existential as Rin's, but his spirit power level is monumental. Remember when he almost killed you at the Ancient War?

Kurumi: Yea. But perhaps with Rin, we can work this to our advantage.

Wraith: We can distract her, she is almost as sensitive as Comet. We have to be cautions about this, Kurumi, this is a serious task that we cannot take a huge risk on.

Kurumi: I know, but perhaps I have a better plan for her, which I'll tell you later after we completely converted Mousey.

Wraith: It sounds like you are secretly in love with this so called "Mousey", huh?

Kurumi: How did you know about that?

Wraith: You sounded like you have a crush on him...Maybe for a long...While!

Suddenly, Kurumi's face turned red after hearing Wraith saying that.

Kurumi: Ok, you got me, it's true ever since he reminds me of someone I know for a really long time before he died, right before I first met Mousey. However, please don't tell Lord Dragaunus or anyone else about this, I hate to get that secret of mine exposed. But since you and Chameleon are the only ones who knew about this, just keep this to ourselves and don't reveal it to anyone else or let them know about it, especially Lord Dragaunus.

All of the sudden, things changed as Wraith begins to curiosity question her, regardless of what punishment she'll get if she gets exposed or whatever punishment they get if they hide her secret or something.

Wraith: What...Are you suggesting, Kurumi?

Kurumi: Yea, please don't tell anyone else or let them know about this. I prefer to keep this private between us.

Wraith: What? Are you certain?

Kurumi: Yes, just to be safe for myself.

Wraith: Wait!? How did it all began from you and that Mouse Boy!?

Kurumi: I don't remember, but ever since after the first war and I remember my memories about my past, he reminds me of someone I know for a really long time before he died, right before I first met Mousey.

Wraith: HOW!?

Kurumi: Idk, but he is a humanoid mouse, just like Mousey, and he was in our side before he died.

Wraith: On your side!? But that doesn't- Bah...

Wraith is massaging his head to cool himself down from this confusion love sickness from Kurumi's heart that she really means it, she really loves the Mouse Boy so badly since the Ancient War.

Kurumi: It's all true. You got to believe me.

Kurumi shows her innocent face to show her truth about this.

Wraith: ...Rrrrrrrr...

Wraith growls from the looks at Kurumi's innocent face to show her truth about this.

Wraith: Fine... You better owe me something right for your misguidance, I will guide you, but that Mouse Boy belongs to us! You better claim that you will get the Mouse Boy for us, in the name of the Saurians!

Kurumi: No worries, Wraith. I got this organized.

Wraith: You better.

Kurumi: I will. Trust me.

?: I heard that...

Kurumi sighs.

Kurumi: Don't tell me...

Chameleon: BUSTED!

Lord Dragaunus: Are you telling me that you are in love with Mouse Boy and you are in sides with him with Wraith!? Have you gone mad!?

Chameleon: It wasn't my fault, Kurumi, I was just getting backup until he arrived.

Kurumi: Lord Dragaunus, I can explain!

Lord Dragaunus: You do realize on what you just done to upset your master...You made him SICK to his HEART! And now...With that shocking disappointment of yours!

All of the sudden, Kurumi is stating to sniff as she's about to cry like a poor princess for the trouble that she's going to get.

Lord Dragaunus: I will make sure that you will never get to see your-

Wraith: WAIT!

Kurumi: Wraith...

Wraith: Master, may I help you understand the solution to this problem? I believe the purpose of this situation is that she doesn't want to be on her natural side, I notice that she wants to be with him in her heart because she loves him since the Ancient War. Just imagine this, Lord Dragaunus, if those two can get along, think of it of how the immortal couple can go across the galaxy. You, her, and that Mouse Boy, taking over the universe, and you can control them by their ultimate powers for good! If I may be correct, that is what she's materialized all along, correct?

Kurumi: Well, you are right on that, Wraith. However, I feel that a catgirl named Himari Noihara might get in the way for this since I feel that she's really in love with Mousey, and she can sense any move we try to make. We might have to do something about her for that.

Wraith: Lord Illidan remembers this catgirl. She was the Ayakashi survivor from Lord Illidan's Deadly Invasion.

Kurumi: I know.

With Lord Dragaunus thinking, Kurumi has another thing to say for her forgiveness of what purposing she wants for Mouse Boy and what will she do to take over for the Shadow Legion.

Kurumi: Lord Dragaunus, with Mousey in our side, I bet he and I will be the king and queen once we take over the Spirit World and Earth and make them ours for the Shadow Legion.

Lord Dragaunus continues to think and hopefully make a better situation about this as best as he can, until...

Lord Dragaunus: Okay, fine. I guess that will work then.

Kurumi: Thank you, Lord Dragaunus. I'm glad you understood what Wraith and I'm trying to say about this.

Lord Dragaunus: This Mouse Boy will be ours, Kurumi. You would do well to remember the fact. We will watch the wayward from the Star Force and wait. Despite his failure, he may still be useful to us.

Kurumi: I know. Wraith and I can handle this on our own once we're both ready.

Wraith: Let's do it.

Lord Dragaunus: I will be watching you, Kurumi. Don't let me down, especially with your fallen dark master.

And with that, Lord Draganus begins to teleport back to his main station with Siege and clumsy Chameleon.

Kurumi: Speaking of that, the Dark Lord recently contacted me that his work with me is now done, and I have to head to him to pick it up. When it's time, I'll tell you to start the completion, but you have to avoid letting Mousey see you to avoid suspicions, and I'll talk down to him to avoid letting him resist and make him completely submissive.

Wraith: Alright, make sure your time is right to get Mousey in our side before suspicious things happen from the spirits.

Kurumi: I got ya.

Kurumi teleports with her shadow to prepare herself to complete her and the Shadow Legion's control over Mouse Boy. As the story continues, Comet, Rin's clones, the Ambassador, and Himari are taking stations to discuss their mission process for another war they have to take care to regain justice across the galaxy as the Shadow Legion is now growing stronger ever since the Ancient War, where Illidan made shocking history were he killed the King of the Millennium Kingdom. Siege is now worried about Kurumi's suspicious move since she exposed her true feelings about him SINCE the Ancient War.

Siege: Boss? Are you certain about Kurumi's situation of controlling and handling Mouse Boy for the Shadow Legion? I'm not too often about this.

Lord Dragaunus: Don't go too far on this, Siege. Keep on contacting with the other Shadow Legions. One day, the Saurians will have our time to create impact to the universe. Once the spirits are fallen, we will have our hands to create a new empire to credit Lord Illidan's success and his en-dearly Shadow Royal Family. The world will be mine.

As the picture of it is shown, the war rages on as the scene from the battleground shows the Xavai group of aliens being attacked by a landslide from the Zergs and Space Orcs as their planet is on code red in the third war. Meanwhile, with Mouse Boy as his shadow vessel is continuing to trigger though his body hard after what Chameleon did to him with Wraith.

Mouse Boy: What is going on?... What is wrong with me?...Kurumi, you...

All of the sudden, his voice is changing, which will shock Kurumi, as it's Lord Illidan.

Lord Illidan: Evil awaits, the world will be perished in these new rising hands of the new generation of the Shadow Empire.

Mouse Boy: I'm hearing Illidan!

Lord Illidan: Your evil has almost matched the same level as mine. Remember the good old times you had with me and my precious shadow child, Kurumi at Egypt?

Mouse Boy is going delusional as it looks like he can't walk normally. His Zafkiel eye is ticking hard on him.

Lord Illidan: Listen, I know you are scared and horrified to see me coming back, but I'm in your vision now, and I want you to know that I'm surprised to hear everything from you and Kurumi.

Mouse Boy: Wait!? Did you!?

Lord Illidan: Exactly, after years of my life, creating this new regime of chaos, and when the vile supreme Queen of all Millennium is still alive in this time around. If I were you, I would begin combating against the Queen and make sure this universe belongs to the shadow, yours truly. But beware, she is very crafty and rarely appears often.

Mouse Boy gasps shockingly.

Mouse Boy: Are you saying that you want me to assassinate Queen Silveria!?

Lord Illidan laughs normally.

Lord Illidan: Faithfully as it sounds. Your new disguise won't be spoiled in the frame of you killing the Queen Silveria. Don't worry, you have your shadows regimes taking care of it for you while you have a chance to take down the Queen of the Millennium Kingdom.

Mouse Boy: No...No, it can't be! I won't allow you to use me as your pet to kill that Queen! What if she'll found out about it!? Yeah, Kurumi! Grrr...

Mouse Boy's feeling the pain from the shadow vessel on him.

Mouse Boy: What will she do? I bet she won't like it!

Lord Illidan suddenly starts to laugh crazily like the good old times.

Lord Illidan: Oh, she will have a little choice to notice me in no time. If her memory serves well, you and your powers will be quite formidable. I will like to see you how well you take good care of my precious spirit of mine, she is very comfortable by your kind, your energy will be quite unstoppable by the shadow blood in your body. Your instincts know that the changing of you will be quite monumental.

Meanwhile, something went wrong from Wraith's head, something that he can't believe what he's sensing, whether it is true or not, it is?

Wraith: Grraaahh! Something is a mystery! Is it really? I can't believe what I'm feeling. This sensing is burning in my retina.

Wraith continues to follow Kurumi in her path as her mission is to get Mouse Boy to be 100% controlled with his fully shadow blood as a new shadow crusader against the world by the shadows' power to regain the powers of the new Shadow Legion.

Mouse Boy: Noooo! This can't be! I need help!

All of the sudden, Kurumi arrived just in time along with Wraith as they manage to spot Mouse Boy without being noticed yet.

Wraith: His behavior is now getting worst then we thought it would.

Kurumi: How surprising. I don't know how this is happening so far.

Mouse Boy: I'm scared. I can't believe that he's turning me into a monster. He's trying to make me lose things that I love...No, it can't be!

Mouse Boy is now heading to the foggy alley.

Wraith: He's getting away.

Kurumi: We'll handle him later until it's time. I'll let him have his last remaining amount of freedom for now until I'm ready for this.

Wraith: Kurumi, I don't know what has gotten into you about this time. I don't think you are using your time rightly. Mousey is acting suspicious, and if we don't handle it soon, it will be too late to handle his vulnerability!

Kurumi sighs.

Kurumi: You know what? Since you're getting impatient about this, I guess I'm ready for this now.

Kurumi managed to follow Mouse boy at the dark alley, the same place where he first met Himari. He starts to have a vision/flashback where the horrifying gang of cats are ready to attack him, until the white cat stood by with strong energy of this demon cat that scared off the thug cats away from them. Mouse Boy was so scared that his tears is running from his eyes. Himari looks at this poor innocent mouse boy terrified in fear from this horrible gang of cats who were about to attack him. Himari decided to cheer him up by snuggling him through his legs and purring. Mouse Boy's fear is weakening, and he is now feeling bless that the white cat saved his life. Mouse Boy begins to hug Himari in the rain with joy since he never had a friend who saved him from his nightmare and decided to carry her to her new home from this heavy rain.

Mouse Boy: Himari...

His vision now begins with good old memories from her, where she surprised him as a new student on his Westside Academy, began to share lunch with Mousey, helped him with his homework, and tried to go way with him, but she fails at it since Mouse Boy is too scared to do it since he's not ready.

Illidan: Your heart... Is broken...

Mouse Boy is now feeling paranoid.

Mouse Boy: What about it!? She belongs to me, I killed you because you were going to kill my fiance!

Illidan: Your fiance!? Oh, how amoral, my little one. Even if Himari really cares about you...She wouldn't leave you behind... As a matter of fact, didn't she make a will that she will protect you after she took care of the war?

Within seconds, Kurumi and Wraith arrived at the ceiling balcony in the alley, looking at Mouse Boy talking to himself for some reason.

Wraith: His energy is suddenly growing already, it seems like the dark energy you put on Mousey is about to be fully complete by about now.

Kurumi: How is that possible? We're not doing anything. But that doesn't matter. Now it's time for me to make sure he doesn't try to resist.

Kurumi teleports to Mouse Boy nearby with her shadow.

Kurumi: Surprised to see me, Mousey?

All of the sudden, without knowing what's going on inside Mouse Boy's head, Kurumi is shocked by the look of his face. His face had TURNED SHADOW, and his eyes are glowing red ALOT LIKE Kurumi's master, Lord Illidan!

Kurumi: Is... is that? It couldn't be...!

Mouse Boy: HIMARI BETRAYED MY HEART, LORD ILLIDAN!

With those words, Kurumi can't believe what she's seeing. Could this be really happening!? Is it really what she think it is!?

Kurumi: Did he said Lord Illidan? Is it true that he's still here? I though he's dead. Could he end up being a ghost now just like with Kuro?

Mouse Boy: I'm back...I feel like I'm being reincarnated back into this world!

With the vision from Mouse Boy, Illidan is behind Mouse Boy, petting him in the head with his grieve welcome back smile! HE'S BACK!

Kurumi: Is...is that you, my lord? Did you really possess Mousey to show your comeback?

Mouse Boy: I felt betrayed...My heart just fell into my grave...My revenge is against the world and all of those who hate me. Now I feel the ultimate power of my master, revenge is against the spirits and the person who back-stabbed me will pay dearly. Lord Illidan, I'm ready to reincarnate and bring revenge against this wretched universe in the name of your Shadow Empire!

And then, Kurumi's mind suddenly blown when she heard Illidan's laughter.

Wraith: ...Kurumi! Could that be possible!? That shadow energy you gave him, is Illidan really back!?

Kurumi: I have no idea, perhaps he must have came back as a ghost, just like with Kuro.

Mouse Boy: I'm going to bring him back from the dead...Kurumi.

Wraith: Wait? How can this be the big news? There is no reincarnation, is it, Lord Illidan?

?: There is.

Wraith: A reincarnation spell, but how!?

Mouse Boy's shadow glows as Illidan begins to talk when Mouse Boy talks.

Illidan: It was forbidden to be defined as the code of the Gods. There is the philosophical concept that the soul or spirit, after biological death, can begin a new life in a new body. This doctrine is a central tenet of the Krokmord.

Wraith: Krokmord, I haven't heard of those species in ages...

Kurumi: Me neither. How did you know about that?

Mouse Boy talks to Kurumi with the voice of Illidan's voice.

Illidan: Kurumi, I studied more about this race that no one knows about them better. This species holds the mystical energy of the Gilbert Fountain that secretly lies in the underworld of the Spirit World, from which the Krokmord holds the immortal power, but it's not that easy to get it. It also holds the most powerful ancient Golem monsters, and they are almost unstoppable to kill them.

Wraith: That was unbelievable information. The Gilbert Fountain. With that!? It...can reincarnate...Lord Illidan.

Kurumi can't believe what is happening.

Kurumi: Could this be true? Was it the only way to revive you?

Illidan: Yes...Use the Mouse Boy that I'm with right now as his ghost vision. Since this is your destiny, you will be using him along to make you comfortable since you are very close to him of your love.

Kurumi: Wait, how did you know about that? Don't tell me... You know my secret, didn't you? If you did, then... please don't punish me for that! I've been keeping it ever since the Ancient War to avoid punishments from anyone in the Shadow Legion, including you. You tried to punish me before when you found out my secret of being in love with the Mouse guy who died in the Ancient War that you almost killed!

Illidan: I was quite suspicious from Wraith's mind that I read that you kept the darkest secret about it since the Ancient War.

Wraith: Oh no...You're busted, Kurumi.

Kurumi: Please, forgive me, my lord. I'm too young to be punished!

Kurumi begs for mercy as she's now starting to cry from this.

Illidan: Why are you crying, my child!?

Kurumi: Because I'm scared that you're going to punish me for my secret, just like last time.

Illidan: Keeping a secret away from me, it's a violation of our family code. But after what you did this time, it pleases me that you are trying to create one of your own.

He's pointing at Mouse Boy which Kurumi used the shadow blood to turn him to the dark side to make him one of her own.

Kurumi: You mean, you're not mad at me for that?

Illidan: I'm happy of what you did. With that strategy you lead out, you put a remarkable job on trying to steal the mouse from that demon cat to make him on your side. The boy who killed the Shadow Lord is now going to revive me from the Gilbert Fountain.

Kurumi: I'm glad...

Kurumi wipes her tears from her eyes.

Wraith: Wow...I'm surprised that happened.

Kurumi: Yea, but thank goodness Lord Illidan doesn't mind it.

Illidan: And now, you will do as I command. While you are taking over the world, bring me back...Aliiiiive!

Kurumi: I got ya, my lord. But before that, I have something that the Dark Lord and I made together that I really want to do some testing with Mousey before I can think of a full plan with it.

All of the sudden...

Mouse Boy: Argh~! What!? What have you done to me!?

Wraith: Illidan, are you there? I guess he left, which means his shadow energy inside of the Mouse's body have dropped.

Kurumi: Oh, I'm surprised you're still trying to break free, Mousey. It's something that you'll find out soon enough. Just relax and don't resist from my and the Shadow Legion's power. I could need new recruits for the new Shadow army.

Kurumi whispers to Mouse Boy through his ear.

Kurumi: For now on, you'll serve me as my knight.

Mouse Boy: A...A knight?

Kurumi: Not just any knight, a shadow knight.

Mouse Boy: No...Himari...Help...

Kurumi: Just surrender. You new life is about to begin. Join me, you know you want to help me and the others for the Dark Lord and Lord Illidan.

Kurumi touches Mouse Boy in his chin as he feels shocked about it.

Kurumi: Don't you want to have a little fun with me? Listen to me. As my knight, you'll always be loyal to me and serve and please me, the Dark Lord, Lord Illidan, and Lord Dragaunus for all eternity. Submit and feel this new power for yourself that I gave to you. This is your new destiny.

Mouse Boy: Oh...

Mouse Boy blinks as his eyes are covered in darkness, and as he opened them, they now have a red glow surrounding them, including his clock eye like Kurumi's.

Kurumi: Will you accept this new destiny and obey me, Mousey?

Mouse Boy speaks his final thoughts about Himari in his head.

Mouse Boy: Forgive me, Himari... Yes... I will be your royal Shadow Knight.

Kurumi snaps her fingers as Mouse Boy surrenders to her. As this happens, his outfit turned into black armor that kinda looks like Insane BRS's armor, his light sword turned into a dark sword, and he obtained dark powers.

Kurumi: Now that's a good boy. Promise to me that you'll accept your fate to be my servant forever and swear your loyalty to me, the Dark Lord, Lord Illidan, and Lord Dragaunus.

Mouse Boy, who is now Kurumi's Shadow Knight, grabs her hand like a Royal Shadow Knight and kisses Kurumi.

Mouse Boy: I am yours to command, my shadowy love.

Kurumi giggles as if she's figuring out that it's because it kinda tickled a little or the power she had to him that it sorta reminds her of what Rin did for her while being hypnotized.

Kurumi: Now, come, my knight. We got my new project to test for our new recruits for us to get for our new army as the Dark Lord promised until I have the last one left for me to plan out the whole thing with it.

Mouse Boy: Yes, Kurumi.

He bows to Kurumi and then kisses her hand again. She giggles again as she took out 7 masks that looked like the same one from her picture of it, and they went off to get new recruits for the new army.

Kurumi: Wraith, while Mousey and I'm busy on our testing for my new project, I want you and Chameleon to capture Rin and bring her to me. I have plans for her once Mousey and I'm done.

Wraith: With pleasure, Kurumi.

Wraith summons a portal and left to contact Chameleon.

While he left, Mouse Boy looks at himself with his suit, and he has a metal tail swinging around as he looks behind.

Mouse Boy (Shadow Knight): I have an armor tail...

He looks at Kurumi, who is not amused.

Mouse Boy: Really?

Kurumi: Weird, I don't know how that made you got an armor tail. That wasn't supposed to happen, but oh well. At least I hope you're the only one that had this effect on, but you'll get used to it eventually.

Meanwhile, with Wraith as he arrived on set with Chameleon.

Chameleon: So, what's the next operation?

Wraith: Kurumi wants us to capture Rin Kagamine for her and return back to the main base.

Chameleon: Rin Kagamine, eh?

Wraith: She's a well-trained sorcery from the Millennium Kingdom. I think it's a perfect time to kidnap her and return her back to Kurumi.

Chameleon: Hmmm, hopefully, by the time we don't find out about- eh, why not? Let's just get the move on because I already set up a booby trap just for her.

Chameleon shows Wraith a disk that has electric sparks that can lay a trap net at the priestess.

Wraith: Excellent, this girl will fall into our trap in no time.

Meanwhile, with Rin and Len Kagamine, after they got the table, the FOX News showed the 3rd war sparking outcry across the universe with the shocking return of the Shadow Demons who are now known as the Shadow Legion.

Len: Damn! The Shadows are back again, and I can't believe they've made it even worst...Damn, I thought they were dead already... Why couldn't they just stop already!?

Rin: Well, no shit, the others are handling them. I don't know what are they doing in here. This is no time for them to start this during that time.

Len: This is impossible!

Meanwhile, when this happens, Siege and Chameleon teleported as they arrived at the Women's Bathroom, opened the bathroom door from an inch, and peeked through it.

Siege: Yes, found her! My calculation found her on the right track.

Chameleon: Well, on that case!

Chameleon suddenly throws a booby trap right at Rin, and then, he comes out with a surprise with a laser gun that hits Len Kagamine to the ground. And without warning, Rin has been electrocuted and being zapped into this trap.

Siege: GOTCHA! YOU LITTLE BRAT!

The crowd suddenly starts to panic as 2 aliens are attacking them, as they begin to scream with broken plates shattering on the floor, and they start running away.

Rin: Wha... What the hell?

Chameleon: Hahaha! Let's see how Kurumi likes this. We got her.

Siege: Now since everyone has run away, you have no choice to come with us, little girl.

Rin: Hey, you creeps! What is the meaning of this?!

Chameleon gets his face closer to Rin.

Chameleon: Just quite your blabbering and get a move on, you know who wants you?

Rin: Wha.. who is? Why are you doing this?

Chameleon: We are taking you back where you belong, girl.

Siege: Haha! That's right! We are taking you back to our favorite playground!

He's pointing a laser gun at Rin's forehead.

Rin: Ow! Hey, that hurts! Whatever this is, I can't let it happen. Finishio!

Rin uses her spell to teleport away from Chameleon and Siege's trap on her.

Chameleon: What the!?

Siege: She's escaping!

Siege begins her gunpoint at Rin's escape to shoot her down. Suddenly, Rin teleported back to Len's hometown to get away from Siege and Chameleon.

Rin: That was a close one. Good thing I lost those two. Oh shoot, I forgot about Len, but if I go back, they'll try to get me again, so I hope he'll be alright at that. I'm sorry if I have to leave him out like this, but there's no other choice for me to escape.

All of the sudden, she sensed danger coming from here.

Rin: Huh, now what? I'm sensing something in here, and it's coming from Miku's house. Oh no, I have a feeling that she could be in danger. I got to make sure she's okay.

Rin went off to head to Miku's house.

End
